

BRIEF PROFILE

Vijay Kumar Shrotryia

He is a Professor of Commerce at Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. His teaching career of over 3 decades includes teaching in Bhutan for a decade and in Shillong for around 13 years. He was also professor and head, department of Commerce, North-eastern Hill University, Shillong, Meghalaya. All these years he has been actively involved in teaching, research and administration.

His area of research surround Happiness and Human Well Being at all levels - individual, organizational, national and global. As an expert on happiness, he is actively involved with the activities of the Rajya Anand Sansthan, Bhopal, Govt of Madhya Pradeah ever since its inception. His works have been cited widely. He runs a research lab called HappLab. In 2020, he authored a book entitled "Human Well-being and policy in South Asia". He has published with Sage, Emerald, Palgrave, Elsevier, SpringerNature apart from many others. His research papers are well cited across disciplines and geographies. He developed a monograph for India Policy Foundation for consideration of happiness in policy as an alternative to GDP. He had academic visits to University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, US; Georgia State University, Atlanta, US; Rangsit University, Bangkok; Lingnan University, Hongkong; Freie University, Berlin; University of Innsbruck, Austria; apart from many others.

He is a fellow of Indian Commerce Association and former president of Indian Commerce association - Delhi NCR chapter. He is a recipient of the gold medal for being best business academic of the year (BBAY) award in 2018, and Young Researcher Award in 2001, apart from many others.

He is a trained assessor of NAAC and coordinated several Peer Teams for accreditation of colleges and universities across India. He has been part of many high-level committees of UGC, ICSSR, Public Service Commissions, many central and state universities and other important agencies.